

Isleham Eventing Complex

Health and Safety Policy

The Organisers of events held at Isleham have taken reasonable precautions to ensure the Health and Safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must themselves take all reasonable precautions to prevent accidents and must comply with any instructions given by the Organiser, Officials and Stewards.

Statement of Liability

Except for the negligence of the Organiser and his agents or others for whom in law they are responsible, the Organiser does not accept responsibility in respect of any accident, illness or disease caused to or suffered by any horse, owner, competitor, spectator, sponsor and others present at the site of the Event and their property and accoutrements.

Spectators

All reasonable and practical steps are taken to ensure the Health, Safety and Welfare of those attending the Event. Please follow the direction signs and listen to the public address announcements and stewards. Please will spectators and competitors walking the course ensure they do not impede any riders at the fence or obstruct the judge's view of the rider's progress at the obstacle. Spectators enter the Event at their own risk and should wear appropriate footwear for the ground conditions.

The Event has dedicated area on the site for any spectators who has a blue badge. Please speak to the Organisers who will direct you to those area's.

Motor Cycles and All Terrain Vehicles

The use of these vehicles is not permitted on any part of the course or the grounds used [exception authorised officials]. Please be guided by this notice in the context of "Health & Safety" and Insurance Risks in the event of an accident.

Safe Guarding

Sally Green is Isleham Eventing Event Nominated Welfare Officer and will liaise with relevant nominated representatives.

Dogs

Dogs are welcome to the Event but must be kept on short leads, including the course walk. Any dogs listed below and any which appear on the dangerous dogs act must be muzzled at all times, at any event held here at Isleham

- the Pit Bull Terrier
- the Japanese tosa
- the Dogo Argentino

- the Fila Brasileiro
- any type of dog breed for fighting

Contractors Health and Safety

Please be aware that it is your responsibility regarding your own Health and Safety at this event. Contractors are expected to provide tool and necessary equipment, to ensure that they are suitable for the work and that they meet all statutory requirements with regard to their use and safety. Contractors are to have the necessary certification as the operation requires.

Advice to the Public

The Organisers of this event advises you that due to the prevailing weather, uneven and, in parts, irregular terrain at this event, it may at times be difficult for spectators to move around freely and easily. As a result of which, it may not be suitable for those spectators who suffer from certain medical conditions. All spectators enter the event at their own risk and are advised to wear suitable footwear. The organisers shall not incur any liability, except as required by law, in respect of any injury or damage to spectators or their property howsoever caused.
